PART IINARRATIVE SUMMARY

(C) Throughout most of the six month period HMM-164, attached to the 33rd MAU, remained embarked aboard the USS OKINAWA, with an average of 12 CH-46's, 6 CH-53's and 4 UH-1E's. On 9 December 1972, HMM-164 conducted a cross-deck movement to the USS INCHON, while in port at Subic Bay, Philippines. The report of their operational activities is contained in the chronological history of the 33rd MAU.

(C) HMM-165, with an average of 12 CH-46's, 6 CH-53's and 4 UH-1E's, was embarked aboard the USS TRIPOLI until 3 August 1972, at which time the squadron transferred to the USS NEW ORLEANS, remaining embarked thereon in support of the 31st MAU. A report of 165's operational activities is contained in the chronological history of the 31st MAU.

(C) HMA-369 commenced this semiannual period embarked aboard the USS DENVER, conducted a cross-deck movement to the USS CLEVELAND on 1 August 1972, and conducted a further cross-deck movement to the USS DUBUQUE on 6 December 1972. The squadron, with an average of 7 AH-1J's continued its interdiction role for MARHUK operations. A resume of HMA-369's operations will be found in the historical records of the 9th MAB.

(U) During this reporting period, H&MS-36 completed a total of 248.8 flying hours, with a complement of one CH-46D. A total of 172.7 flight hours were flown in ferrying 11 aircraft to and from PAR for deployed squadrons. The squadron was called upon to complete a variety of missions, ranging from support of the 3rd Marine Division training program, to aiding the Okinawa Civic Action Program by the use of emergency medical evacuations. In addition to flying and pilot training, the squadron continued in its primary function of IMA and supply support for the tactical squadrons of Marine Aircraft Group 36.

(C) H&MS-36, Detachment Delta, with an average of 4 CH-46's continued to provide SAR/Medevac, logistic and security support for Task Force Delta at Nam Phong, Thailand, as well as administrative/liaison support for MAG-15.

(C) HMH-462, with nine CH-53's assigned, provided logistic support to MAG-36 during this reporting period, flying a total of 2033 sorties, involving 1085 tasks and lifting 10,172 passengers and 418.3 tons of cargo. Flight time for the period totaled 1058.9 hours including 70.3 hours flown in support of the United States Atomic Energy Commission, on Eniwetok Atoll in the Marshall Islands.

(C) VMGR-152 remained primarily committed to operations in Southeast Asia during the period July through December. Support of Task Force Delta consisted of four KC-130F aircraft, dropping to three for a short period. At NAS Cubi Point, R. P., one aircraft was committed in support of VMCJ-1. This aircraft provided daily shuttle service for the VMCJ maintenance crew and aerial refueling to their EA-6A's when operational commitments dictated. This unit also flew a variety of other missions including VIP support, one Transpac Operation and local training flights to upgrade pilot proficiency. The squadron flew 2,031.1 hours, carrying 12,940 passengers and 10,188,029 pounds of cargo and baggage. A summary of VMGR-152 Detachment Delta support aircraft operations may be found in the chronological history of Task Force Delta.

(C) The remaining subordinate units of MAG-36 supported Vietnam operations through unit and individual training while providing replacement personnel for units under operational control of 31st and 33rd Marine Amphibious Units, Task Force Delta, and H&MS-36 at Atsugi, Japan. Flight hours for the Group exceeded 22,000 for this period.

PART IINARRATIVE SUMMARY

(C) Throughout the month of December 1972, HMM-164, attached to the 33rd Marine Amphibious Unit, remained embarked aboard the USS OKINAWA with twelve CH-46's, six CH-53's, and four UH-1E's. The report of their operational activities is contained in the monthly chronology of the 33rd MAU.

(C) HMM-165, with twelve CH-46's, six CH-53's, and four UH-1E's remained embarked aboard the USS NEW ORLEANS, in support of the 31st Marine Amphibious Unit. A report of HMM-165's operational activities is contained in the monthly chronology of the 31st MAU.

(C) Upon completion of cross-deck transfer from the USS CLEVELAND to the USS DUBUQUE, on 5 December 1972, HMA-369, with seven AH-1J's continued its interdiction role for MARHUK operations. A resume of HMA-369's operations for the month of December will be found in the 9th Marine Amphibious Brigade Monthly Chronology and HMA-369 message 030840Z Jan 73 (S).

(C) H&MS-36 Detachment Delta, with four CH-46's, continued to provide SAR/Medevac, logistic and security support for Task Force Delta at Nam Phong, Thailand, as well as administrative/liaison support for MAG-15.

(C) HMH-462, with six CH-53's assigned, provided logistic support to MAG-36 with two aircraft. The requirement for four aircraft going to PAR hampered the performance of the squadron during the early part of the month, but with the return of the detachment supporting the Atomic Energy Commission and with the receipt of four aircraft from PAR on 16 December, the squadron was able to fly a total of 87.0 hours involving 67 sorties carrying 83 passengers and 11,600 pounds of cargo.

(C) VMGR-152, continued its support of Task Force Delta with three KC-130F aircraft until 19 December when the detachment was increased to four aircraft. Squadron support of VM CJ-1 ECM Operations at NAS, Cubi Point, R. P., continued with one KC-130F in daily use. Squadron support of SEA operations consisted of 141 sorties, logging 440.2 flight hours, carrying

NARRATIVE SUMMARY

December was a month of numerous personnel changes. The S-2 Officer, 1stLt L. O. PFAUTZ, was relieved of all duties as the S-2 to assume a new position in the Human Affairs Branch; and the Assistant S-2 Officer, CWO-2 N. R. FINCHER assumed the duties of the S-2 Officer. The S-2 Chief, GySgt J. V. CALDWELL rotated and was replaced by MSgt M. TOMA. Two 0239 Intelligence Chiefs and four 0231 Intelligence Analysts reported aboard this month.

Weekly Intelligence liaison visits were made with the intelligence community on the island. The information gathered from these visits and that taken from the daily message traffic was then compiled into weekly intelligence briefings for the Commanding Officer's Conference. Many hours were spent working toward the quarterly goal of a revised SOP for Security. The Group Orders pertaining to the Personnel Reliability Program and Designation of Security Areas were rewritten and are presently being staffed. A climatic brief for January for the Ryukyus was researched and distributed to the Squadron S-2 Sections.

PART IINARRATIVE SUMMARY

During the month of December, Marine Aircraft Group 36 conducted normal flight operations with little change in overall posture.

Group aviation assets were utilized throughout the month for the transporting of visiting VIT's, one of which, Lieutenant General METZGER, Commanding General, III MAF, presented a most informative briefing on Marine Corps Officer Selection Board Policy.

Due to past occurrences of racial conflict, Marine Aircraft Group 36 developed a reaction force, to be activated during periods of possible inter-racial stress. This force has performed most satisfactorily, minimizing the severity of the limited number of incidents occurring during the holiday season.

The United Kingdom/United States Personnel Exchange Program commenced with the first detachment from Marine Aircraft Group 36 composed of two Naval Aviators and three Staff Noncommissioned Officers.

The holiday season saw Marine Aircraft Group 36 entertaining nearly 1000 children from Eisenhower Elementary School with a static display of MAG-36 aircraft and an open house.

PART IIISEQUENTIAL LISTING OF SIGNIFICANT EVENTS

1-14 December	The first increment of Naval Aviators and Staff NCO's from MAG-36 was sent TAD to the 656th Aviation Squadron of the British Army, stationed in Hong Kong, as part of the United Kingdom/United States Personnel Exchange Program.
4 December	Major General BROWN, Commanding General, 1st Marine Aircraft Wing conducted a liaison visit with Marine Aircraft Group 36.
7 December	Helicopter Rescue Operations Training was conducted for Corpsmen from the 3d Marine Division, FMFPac.
8 December	Brigadier General ARMSTRONG, Deputy Commanding General, FMFPac, conducted an informal visit with MAG-36, while visiting Okinawa based units.
