PART II
NARRATIVE SUMMARY

During the reporting period of 1-28 February 1971 the "Silver Eagles" of Marine Fighter Attack Squadron 115 flew 286 combat sorties in support of operations throughout Military Region I and the Tonkin Gulf for a total of 343 combat hours. Included in these 286 combat sorties was a significant amount of air to air and steel tiger missions. A total of 110 BarCap/MigCap sorties along with 87 Steel Tiger sorties were flown during this month.

Significant operations supported by officers and men of Marine Fighter Attack Squadron 115 were Jefferson Glenn, Wolfe Mountain, and Dewey Canyon. Units receiving scheduled or on call air support included the First Marine Division, 101st Airborne, First Marine Aircraft Wing, and 1/5 Mech.

During the reporting period Marine Fighter Attack Squadron 115 dropped 372.273 tons of ordnance on the insurgent enemy forces. Expended ordnance for the period was 53 MK-77's, 978 MK-82's (Conical), 96 MK-82's (Snakeye), 85 MK-83's, 89 CBU 24's, 24 MK-81's (Conical), 12 MK-81's (Snakeye).

Bomb damage assessment for month of February included 10 Bunkers Destroyed, 9 Secondary Explosions, 10 Secondary Fires, 520 Meters Treeline Destroyed, 20 Meters Road Slide, 1 Ammo Catch Destroyed, 1 Road Cut, 1 Cave Destroyed, and 2 Trucks Damaged.

On 22 February 1971, the "Silver Eagles" stood down from combat operations and began to prepare for redeployment to MCAS Iwakuni Japan. The deployment is scheduled to be completed on or about 1 March 1971.

The overall records of VMFA-115 tell us from October 1965 through 1970 and into 1971 the professional ability, aggression and spirit of the officers and men of VMFA-115 distinguished the Squadron under the most trying combat conditions imposed by the Vietnam conflict. While serving in Vietnam VMFA-115 amassed 34,468.0 combat hours, 30,086 combat sorties, and dropped 58,310 tons of ordnance. On each of the above mentioned combat sorties VMFA-115 has built its reputation as the "MARINE CORPS BEST FIGHTER ATTACK SQUADRON".
