

11 December 1962

By mutual agreement with TOC, starting this date I Corps and TE 79.3.3.6 will use the same numbering system for missions. the first digit(s) represent the month (12-1 means December). The second digit(s) represent the mission number for that month (12-2) means the second mission in December). The third digit is for HMM-163 operations. -1 means combat support (including recon), -2 means med evac, -3 means all other admin/supply support.

Narrative (Include time, name and coordinates, pos. stage, cargo, VIF status, change of aircraft, cargo, etc.)

Took 1/2 of Special Forces (USA) on recon and photo flight to TRABONG, Ba To, and the southern coastal extremes of the I Corps area, In O-1B. Reason for trip was to photo AF's at Tra Dong and Ba To and to recon evacuation routes from Ba To to the coast. Pick-up sites at coast were also photographed.

On way home sighted small trawler about 5 miles off coast steaming northward. Could not identify, but ship made no evasive or aggressive actions.

Narrative (Include times, names and coordinates, pax, cargo, cargo, VIP names, change of aircraft, crews, etc.)

Left Da Nang 0945 on emergency, came from Hue arrived 1032. Had to call to see where the base was as no one at the field knew about them. After 4 hour wait crews assumed they had been in the hospital for 3 days. Departed Hue 1115. At Coast Z 092122 lead A/C had engine camp warning light come on and landed on the beach due to numerous people (200-500) of ~~unknown~~ advancing rapidly. Wounds downed lead pilot decided to try & fly to Phu Bai to check camp. Crews were transferred at Phu Bai to Da Nang. A/C: young to Da Nang. No Da Nang.

~~The~~ The emergency, even could have been handled by ground flight operations as the patients were already in hospital the mission was not of an emergency nature.

Pilots Sightings of Intelligence Value: (Time, items, coordinates, direction of move etc.)

The many people that quickly gathered around A/C at Z 092122 were probably friendly but due to the great number of them it was impossible to get close and find out if they were hostile.

Remarks and/or Recommendations: No emergency, no observations on the ground and no emergency ground of camp.
