PART II Chronological Summary of Month's Activities

1-3 January (u) Normal Operations

4 January (c) Lieutenant C.D. HAMILTON was fragged to pick up an H-34 fuselage at DaNang which, engine and blades included, was completed in two trips using a "slick".

(c) Captains D.J. LEIGHTON and A.C. CHAPMAN flew 9.9 hours in resupply of positions around Dong Ha. Weather this day, typical of the season, consisted of poor visibility and low ceilings.

5 January (c) Captain M.A. HOESCH was assigned a mission to external one H-37 engine up to Dong Ha, but had to turn back at Phu Bai due to low ceilings. Weather conditions also prohibited the completion of a mission of two aircraft, led by Major G.N. HOLSTEAD, to take I Corps personnel out to an island east of Marble Mountain.

6 January (c) Major G.N. HOLSTEAD and Captain M.A. HOESCH were launched from a standby status for an 18 troop insert at BT122632.

(c) Captain D.J. LEIGHTON externalled a CH-37 engine from Marble Mountain to Dong Ha.

(c) During the morning, recon retractions and insertions were completed by Captains C.S. TUBBS and H.L. KENNEDY. Also this date normal combat resupply missions were completed by Major J.R. PLUMMER and Captains P.C. FREY, R.R. CRITSER and Lieutenant W. B. PHILLIPS.

7 January (c) Major M.J. WILLIAMS led a flight of four squadron aircraft in a resupply of 2/5 in the An Hoa area. 52,000 pounds of cargo was carried.

8 January (u) Normal Operations

9 January (c) The squadron completed several missions this date in the areas of Marble Mountain and Dong Ha; two missions in the Dong Ha area were incomplete due to weather conditions. Missions completed included a two aircraft strike led by Captain D.J. LEIGHTON, a four aircraft resupply of Special Forces personnel led by Major M.J. WILLIAMS and a resupply of positions in the Dong Ha area involving two aircraft led by Major J.R. PLUMMER.

Enclosure (1)

10 January (c) Two aircraft, led by Captain C. S. TUBBS performed three recon insertions and retractions, but was unable to complete one retraction due to cloud cover in the pick up zone. Two three aircraft missions and one two aircraft mission were aborted due to weather.

11 January (c) Lieutenant Colonel W. C. WATSON led a flight of four squadron aircraft in a 150 man troop lift from a zone several miles west of Dia Loc to the battalion C.P. area. The ground troops reported that the aircraft received fire from south of their position, but no hits were received.

(c) "Sparrow Hawk" standby aircraft were launched to move 47 troops on a special mission at AT922685. Major J. R. PLUMMER led the flight of two.

12 January (c) Major W. J. SELLERS led a flight of aircraft in retracting a recon team from a zone northwest of Da-Nang (AT822870). The second aircraft in the flight was from HMM-165.

(c) Lieutenant C. D. HAMILTON and Captain J. T. DANDREA were assigned the mission of transporting 55 ARVN personnel from the city of Hue to YD525480. The mission was completed with no fire reported.

13 January (c) Major G. N. HOLSTEAD led four squadron aircraft in a 95,000 pound resupply of ARVN forces at Thong Dve. A total of 19.3 flight hours were accumulated on this mission.

14 January (c) Four squadron aircraft, led by Major W. J. SELLERS transported 338 troops from a zone west of Dia Loc to an area southwest of DaNang.

(c) The squadron was assigned a strike mission involving four squadron aircraft and four aircraft from HMM-265. The brief was held the previous night. The plan of action called for a two wave insertion of 180 troops into a rice field near the village of Ban Lanh. On the first wave one squadron aircraft received hits, subsequently three of the four squadron aircraft were damaged by enemy fire and one crew chief wounded seriously. The mission was completed after the retraction of the strike force at 1800. The three damaged squadron aircraft were replaced by aircraft from another squadron for the retraction.

UNCLASSIFIED

(c) Operations continue in support of Marines at Khe Sanh and Dong Ha with resupply and troop retractions accounting for the majority of the flight time.

15 January (c) Major J. R. PLUMMER led a flight of four aircraft in a mission of moving troop units to and from various positions within the DaNang TAOR.

16 January (c) Lieutenant C. D. HAMILTON and Captain C. D. JOYNER performed a mission involving moving ARVN troops and supplies in support of Khe Sanh operations. Captains L. J. Mc DONALD and R. R. CRITSER also flew missions in support of Dong Ha operations. Captain C. S. TUBBS led a three plane flight in a troop lift at Marble Mountain.

17 January (u) Normal Operations

18 January (c) The squadron C.O. led four aircraft flight in a strike which was aborted before the troops had been inserted.

(c) Major W. J. SELLERS and Captain M. A. HOESCH were required to pickup 11 ARVN med evacs in the early morning from a zone near Dong Ha and transported them to the ARVN hospital at Hue.

(c) Lieutenant Colonel W. C. WATSON and Major J. D. WATSON each led a section of aircraft in separate troop movements missions around DaNang. Capt V. TESULOV also externalled an Army UH-1E from Dong Ha to Marble Mountain.

19 January (c) Captain D. J. LEIGHTON moved a dental van from AT941786 to Marble Mountain. This is the first time the squadron has moved this particular type of equipment. Lieutenant Colonel W. C. WATSON and Major W. J. SELLERS each flew separate missions involving ARVN resupply and recon troop insertions.

20 January (c) Several resupply and troop moving missions were completed supporting operations at Dong Ha and DaNang. An aircraft was also furnished in support of the Air Force and their SAR mission at Quang Tri.

21 January (c) Lieutenant Colonel W. C. WATSON led a flight of four aircraft in moving 90 troops to a zone a few miles south of DaNang. Major G. N. HOLSTEAD and Captain A. C. CHAPMAN led sections on separate troop lift missions in support of operations at Dong Ha.

22 January (c) Major M. J. WILLIAMS externally lifted a UH-1E from Quang Ngai to DaNang. Several recon missions were incompletely in the Dong Ha area due to weather. A four plane strike involving 280 troops was completed at Dong Ha; Major G. N. HOLSTEAD led the flight.

23 January (c) Major J. R. PLUMMER led a three aircraft flight in resupply to An Hoa. The operations at Dong Ha were hampered due to poor weather

24 January (c) Two separate four aircraft flights completed missions involving both troops and resupply. Several single aircraft missions involving recon and resupply were also completed at Dong Ha.

25 January (c) Two single aircraft missions carrying med-evacs to the USS REPOSE were completed from Dong Ha. Support continued at Khe Sanh with two squadron aircraft completing one recon retraction.

26 January (c) Captain D. J. LEIGHTON was assigned the mission of lifting pontoon sections; it was partly completed. Also six aircraft were assigned three separate missions, one section per mission, totaling 80,000 pounds cargo and 37 troops. Another mission led by Major G. N. HOLSTEAD accomplished two recon insertions and retractions.

(c) One squadron aircraft crashed and burned near Khe Sanh while attempting to aid at a previous crash site. The aircraft was called from Dong Ha for the mission and left there after darkness and crashed in the landing zone at approximately 2030. The crew remained in the landing zone until morning at which time their retraction was effected.

27 January (c) A reaction force of 42 troops was inserted at AT991530; the flight was led by Captain L. J. McDONALD. Later in the day the squadron had an aircraft transport 3 med-evacs from DaNang to "C" Med. Also, Lieutenant C. D. HAMILTON externalled a H-37 engine from Dong Ha to Marble Mountain.

28 January (c) The squadron accomplished two significant missions this date; a 67 man troop lift in support of 2/1 led by Captain C. S. TUBBS and a resupply supporting the 1st Marines led by Major M. J. WILLIAMS.
