ENCLOSURE (1)

Operational Discrepancy 10 June 1969 1730

I had an emergency medevac on board - called Ahoy Sailor on 35.5, told them I had medevac SP, 1 USMC Emergency - caused by flash fire from exploding stove. That the med evac had eye trouble, could not see. They cleared me to 95th. and I called when in final. When I landed no one came to help the med evac out of the alc & into triage - after several minutes a man poked his head out the door, by this time my crew and another passenger who had assisted the blind med evac over half way into the hospital. Whoever struck his head out the door - finally strolled out to meet them but never made any effort to assist this man. The crew had to lead the man unassisted - unaided - and stumbling into the hospital. Such disregard is inexcusable. I have never seen this languid attitude before ~~or~~ ever.
