Operational discrepancy:

Swift 5-9 and 5-10, aircraft numbers YK-19 & YK-12 respectively, on 29 July 68 around 16:00 working for Intrigue 14 flew to Marine Air Freight at Da Nang to pick up some cargo to go to LZ 405 at Phu Bai. Upon landing, LT. BLINE was to oversee operation of loading the cargo aboard the aircraft and had flown down aboard our aircraft for that express purpose. I was in command of Swift 5-10 (YK-12) and taxied into air freight to load up. I was told that the fork lift operator could not load the aircraft with the engines running because the turbine gases were at a level with his face. When I started to shut down, a Major came out of the air terminal and told us we could not shut down on the ramp. The cargo was ready and the loading crew was ready but we could not load the aircraft and had to leave without completing that part of the mission.
