5. (U) The Civic Action/Personal Response Program is a systematic effort to establish a deeper rapport and understanding between Americans and Vietnamese. To promulgate this program, curriculum involving religions, customs, cultural perspectives, and participation in village affairs has been put into operation.

MAG-16 and HMH-463 operate congruently in the area directly south of Marble Mountain. Immediate future plans of the Group and Squadron include Vietnamese indoctrination, language classes, training lectures, village field work and special projects in the Da Nang TAOR. Nui Kim Son is the village assigned to MAG-16 and HMH-463.

The objective of this program is a greater American-Vietnamese understanding and the defeat of insurgent Communist forces with and through Vietnamese people.
