Psi Charlie,

Well they finally got me. The actual we had got zapped along with Capt Sam, his radio man. They hit our squad at 3 am but only wounded five of us. I got shot twice in the arm with a AK-47 and a grenade got me in the back and leg. But the kid from Chi is still alive. We really kicked some ass I got the gook who shoot me up. I'm just glad I'm alive and wish it never happened. I'll tell you all about when I get home. Hope you enjoy your new duty station. The base over here is beautiful and when my wound is closed

it might get a pass.

My parents enjoyed
having you over so
thank you again.

Not much else to say.

We just lay around
all day watching T.V.

Learning how to write
right handed and I'll have it licked in a week or so. Take care and be nice.

Bruce
