Dear Rod:

Thanks for writing but you got the address wrong.
Update immediately from below.

I was very interested to get two more addresses of Bravo vets. We may have that reunion yet someday.
Vandergriff wrote but not Upshaw. I remember both names but don't think I could pick either out of a crowd.
Vandergriff didn't write anything about what he's done
since the war, only that he wants to put together a name/address file and have a reunion someday. Fine with me.
I'll write Upshaw soon. The brochure is interesting. I like the Hanoi Jane Urinal Stickers. Twenty years ago I didn't think anybody could make a job out of the war, except Japanese camera and stereo manufacturers!

Sounds like you're using your combat training on the streets now. Better wear iron pants against those hand-grenades. Hi to all, and take care.
