Dear G. Anderson,

What a Book! Too Bad about BRAVO Co. The second part was seemingly more interesting my whole family wants to read it but I tell them to buy it.

Thank you for the advice to follow I'm already there however ~~it~~ also should be hearing from the V.A. hopefully soon This whole ordeal is leading up to a climax only comparable to an experience I had deer hunting wounding a big buck about 5 years ago The tracking the hunt after 7 hours of chasing I jumped over a log-jam & there he was ready to be gutted.

Stob & I are keeping in touch & I'm gonna have a party soon before winter.

You're a good writer "I may be a "chancy way" but hell if ya like it do it. I seen Sterling Hayden on TV a few months back & was thinking about you. Glob says your still the same. Still can't figure out how the hell you or why did you get involved in Viet Nam but the book is a great accomplishment<sup>ment</sup> which makes alot of good sense in answering the whole set of circumstances I liked the reasoning and Terminologies "Visions of Glory" and in "The Highest Traditions" "Fucking Pogues."

Ill Nam my Lt was named Anderson for about 6 mo. when I was a Chief Scout the 1st time I met him well I came off this mountain a couple of my scouts deployed with other companys got there asses blowed away I came back to the rear pissed off and really hurting in the head & heart & then that Lt Anderson was playing basketball with a couple of pogues as if there was or it was ~~the~~ nothing he didn't care - I then took him on + the Gunny also for the next 6 mo. spend most of it in the bush doing my job. My only savior I think was the Viet-Nameese Language I gained the respect of The Kit Larson Scouts I had by not blowing away there people uncalled for and we had many conversations on ideologies and life before and a few probes abouts future and philosophy.

I became a Gook and was extremely good in survival. Oh Well.

You take care + Good luck in the "Gunks." Also remind you again got alot of room in Buffalo.
Keep in touch.

Yours truly,
Denny Jozka
