Dear Mr. Anderson:

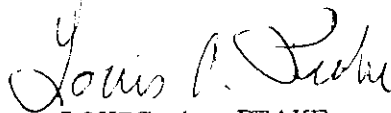

Thank you for your letter of October 7. Please forgive me for being so late in replying to you. What with my teaching load, working on my doctorate, research and writing, my wife and the coming holidays, I have been busy and let my correspondence languish.

Yes, I have seen your book The Grunts and I have prepared an entry card for inclusion in my bibliography. If possible I would appreciate a review copy of your next book, Vietnam: The Other War when published.

My project will be an annotated bibliography. It will include official and unofficial histories, unit histories, fiction and non-fiction, journals, articles, movies, biographies, etc. Hopefully, it will be the most complete annotated bibliography on Vietnam when finished. The work will not be published probably until 1985-86. The manuscript is not due until 1984.

Again, my apologies for the late reply. I do however, appreciate your taking time to write to me. Best wishes on your forthcoming book. Happy Holidays.

Respectfully,

LOUIS A. FEAKE
