

DCS 314-33/66

Farewell ceremonies were held on 11 August 1966 in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic as two more contingents of the Latin American Brigade, Inter-American Police Force prepared to leave for home.

Being bid farewell by IAPF Officials were the Honduran Company and the smaller Costa Rican unit. Their ceremony was held at the Fraternity Battalion camp in Santo Domingo where companies from four countries, including the Honduran Company, had been operating under a unified command. The Paraguayan contingent, first of the Latin Brigade to leave, had been in the Battalion also.

The Honduran Company had, along with other Fraternity Battalion units, been assigned security duties in the strife-torn capital after fighting had been halted. The Costa Rican unit, composed of National Police and Palace Guardsmen, <sup>reached a peak</sup> ~~of xxxxxx~~ strength of 22. However, only 11... (trooping the line)
