

Dear,

As my day #1 comes to a ^{creeping} end its about lunch time at home. When I go on at 2:30 PM, its 12:30 AM there and thus when I get off work at 2:30 AM you're finishing lunch hour at 12:30 PM there.

I've started out on the air clearance desk. We advise aircraft of aerial shelling so they can steer clear as well as provide light thru big beam on hill when requested & various of other duties. Keep up generators & learning more & more radio jobs as I go along. Also to learn. Feel a bit self conscious on the air with my rogers, out, overs, 104's, 20-20's, etc. But I think I'm going to like it. 12 hrs is a long time but there are breaks for letters, etc. & to eat & talk & read. That leaves the other 12 fairly free for relaxing + blessed sleep.

(which doesn't sound too bad, n/er + ceptas?).

Glad I'm finally busy at something. Taking up a hell of a lot of slack + disarray in my life so far + keep the loneliness from setting in. I was getting jumpy + wanted to do nothing but write constantly.
Now, I'll be very busy + learning all this stuff so I can take the few moments
I have to write + read + stay more sane. Time tends to whiz by too +
that's important.

all of us in here have had some college. The guy teaching me my job + I had has a BA in business + Sweeney is married to a Fr. Canadian (A now lives up there) school teacher & has a ~~an~~ M.D. in chemistry. He was teaching before the draft. He will bread some Fr. & trying to brush up - had out his harouse today - so I'll have one to borrow.

Will slowly get situated & pick up the routine.
Actually I'm happy & I'm busy - would have it no other way. And it's a type of busy I'm used to. Must concentrate & do thousands of diff. things at once - just blow me mind.
So here's hoping for a good year. I really am pleased dear. Not that there won't be days of extreme tension & exaggeration. But it's a challenge + time consuming - two things I thought I'd miss over here.

I love you + am with you today. Hope you're gulling thru the books
+ work O.K. Read the K.C. weather. Sounds like near spring weather -
soon to break out in the new car + fly a bit.
Do try to get away now
+ then over the month
dear. Don't get too tied in or you won't get anything done. I love you.

Yours

Thyres
