

Dear,

10 Apr.

What a blat day. Actually it's just like any other day. That's the prob. But glory be got 4 letters. Today is as cheery as can be. Can't get blue with news & love from you (heav's that for poetry). Actually, it's a good day. Ron busy up until 10 - time goes fast when we're busy.

Heard for you twice, and a letter from Ron & one from Pat. Pat wants to send me some joke books & I told him I'll grab 'em up.

Planning to go to the Bx tomorrow. Hopefully I'll find, or can order, a reasonably good camera. Want one that will take fast pictures - so they'll come out good while I'm in a jeep or copter. Also want one that'll take good closeups for those baby pictures we'll want.

Of course, in order to go to the B&A have to get up at 8:00 and catch the mail carrier. Fred is going to so he can show me how to get around without getting lost.
Must make a list of what I want because I don't want to have to go back very often. I'll plan on getting slide film because it's much cheaper to develop, so why don't you look around for those viewers & see what they cost.
Think picture taking
will be loads of fun & all these things I've described can be a little more real if I explain
them with pictures.

Saw a real chiller of a movie last night called James. It's a real weird murder mystery movies

with a lot of horror & spooks, etc. Was very entertaining, tho. The girl was the same one as the girl in the Graduate.

Know you'd be getting up tight over the comm.
but I think it's helpful to be a little on edge
makes the mind quicker.
Am thinking about you beaucoup. Tomorrow's the day & I'll be there with you, like I've been all this week.

Your newest letter
today was marked Apr 6
but also got Apr. 3 one too. Got Apr. 5 yesterday.
Will the wonders of the DPO never cease! Am trying to remember to ask all letters. Ron requested it, too. He's getting my letters in globe & can't tell what order they were written in. Sounded familiar?

But you up to nite.
Wish I were there to calm you down for the big day. Just thought my letters were some comfort on these lonely nites.
Should have much more
to report tomorrow
after my adventure to the world. Take care - you'll do O.K. I love
you.

Lynn
