

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year

Dear,

Though Christmas may be changed this year
Due to the miles and loved-ones past,

Though the season's joy and Christmas cheer
We have faith in things that last.

In each card and gift and season's tradition
We pause and recall dearest values so dear.

For Christmas is just a formal reflexion
Of close human ties, shared throughout the year.

So recalling the babe born in a stall
May peace be our goal all year long.

MỪNG LỄ GIẢNG SINH
And may this New Year
With more family love, quiet
but strong.

And may this New Year
still bless us all
With more family love, quiet
but strong.
