

Fri.

Dear,

Another fast day. Glad this week had gone fast. Got a "cinderella" pass this weekend which means I can go off post Sat nite + Sun. But must be here between 12 M ~~Sat~~ 7 A M Sun. For me it just means main post privileges + I plan to go down there, get a drink, shop, look around, and get away for it all for my civies. They also have a Bell Tele. place there where I can call you direct + talk + they'll had me a bill afterwards - no change needed. Will try to look it up + definitely call.

Why the idea of dark ~~would~~ wood boards on black blocs. Think it would go well with our Spanish accents. And it would give you something to do. Should be able to pull a pass 2 weekends from this one (which is your friend). If so, we can plan to try the Tulsa H.P. Should get good connections. Will check into their schedules this weekend. Your mom & Alan bit tickles me. The

"Mrs. Joy" sounds very much like Mom's - very vague & seeing all good in mistakes, bad, etc.
Well, it does take all kinds & I kind of feel sorry for Joy but think she may have a "Debbie" complex in some ways. Seems like the type Alan would like, or?

What's this about no personal property tax for service people? The car is in my name & if that rule holds, we shouldn't have to pay a penny. You might call the Co. court house & assessor's office & ask. If is 16 is a ticket to Tulsa.

Uncle Loren may be able to take care of taxes for us.
I'd hate for you to send them to me. As afraid they'd get lost or messed up around here. Why don't you write & ask & see what he can do - also, explain the no withholding on my part & the laws for exemptions for students & for service people. Won't have W-2 form for awhile, but they always come in the mail eventually.
Remember, we have to file State, too, so if you don't get a mailed copy,
you can get them
at county court house (get short form).
Liked Grandma's
note. She can very considerate & I think she admires no conflicts or no.

I'm so happy you've got V & M up stairs. I think they may prove to be a salvation thru the next semester & just what you need. Would be nice if you could find that you all could study together fairly regularly because you need that. You sound fairly settled again, dear & that has cheered my week more than you know. Hasn't been so bad here either. The cold is the only bad thing, but there's more relief here having more post privileges & passes to break the rut.

I sure do love you. Seems like our lives intertwine & grow stronger daily together, even miles apart. I'll see you again soon & that makes time go faster & me more relaxed. Take care & work hard. I need you. Love, Lynn
