

Suz

Dear,

Well, the trip was faster than expected. Got in before 1 and got things halfway arranged by 2. Kind of let down. Didn't stop to eat anywhere, so will have to rely on the goodies & supper to do me today. Slept sort of haphazardly most of the way. Had a short layover in ~~Las Vegas~~ Wash. & then in Ok. City. Got to Lawton & there was a saddle service to the fort.

It's warmer here. Here we've been running around without coats but there was little skiff of snow & ice here & there, so it's been cold. Hope it stays nice - my resistance is probably a bit low & don't want to start out with a cold. Can't find my dog tags. I remember taking them off at Grandma's when I first got in that Thurs. I don't know where they went after that. Try to ~~be~~ locate them for me if you can. Will probably need them at one time or another.

I miss home already. But then again I want to get the show on the road & get thru. We've got to clean up & straighten up all this evening but everyone moving slow. Everyone seems to have found it harder to go this time than the first. We knew what we'd face this ~~time~~ time & also have greater doubts as to our future assignments.

Don't know where I'm going to stick all my stuff. Before, we could keep our arbor bags by our jolloches & fill them with various not so valuable stuff. But they're going to have us get them in storage - so that space is gone. Guess I'll just have a continuously bulging duffle bag - we hang them on the bunk as a laundry bag.

Hope you can pull yourself up & attach those papers. It's going to be hard at first for me to get turned on & tuned in to this stuff again, too.

Glad I got her on time, but there's not more than half of us here yet & our fearless leaders (LPC's) aren't back. Some people may have an early taste of HP ~~to~~ after the holidays. I did get some food a while ago. They opened the mess hall with fruit & cookies. We'll get supper later. Am generally just feeling gray. If only all time would pass as fast as leave time. Well, it may be. Got word that, after we're squared away, Reveler won't be until 6 AM, so we can sleep until 5. Of course some of my rites will be broken by fire watch or security guard duty, but that's all in the game & usually we can plan around it sleep wise. Strange I can write so much so soon after leaving. Hope I do have time for regular lengthy letters for you. I know it helps + I do want to help you out.

Best go + finish fixing up before supper. Have lots to do. Love you.
Remember, we're together
in that apt. Part of us lives there.

Love,
Lynn
