The wound was superficial and appeared to be caused by some type of fragmentation grazing the skin. She reported that she was working in a rice paddy this morning when the ARVNs had contact. She was unable to point out the area where she was wounded, but told the 1/52 interpreter she lives in Xuan My hamlet, Son Phuong village, Son Tinh District. She was evacuated to Quang Ngai by 1/52 resupply helicopter at 1110. The hamlet and village mentioned are not identified on map sheets of area adjacent to LZ Stinson. She indicated the area was west of Stinson approx 4 kilometers. No US fire missions from Stinson were processed in that area nor were US troops occupying locations in that area.
