AMERICAL DIVISION NEWS

CHU LAI (AMERICAL 10)—Outnumbered Americal soldiers withstood an early-morning attack on a vital bridge 12 miles southeast of Duc Pho to highlight moderate action in southern I Corps yesterday.

The recent enemy offensive was renewed in attacks on seven bridges, four landing zones, and two villages between 0130 and 0330 hours.

Americal Division forces reported killing 11 NVA and 28 VC, and capturing four individual weapons.

FREDERICK HILL—The day's heaviest action occurred in the 196th Inf. Bde. area where 11 NVA and 15 VC were killed, and three weapons were captured.

Co. B, 1-46 Inf. killed four NVA and six VC in three contacts. The biggest came at 1130 15 miles southwest of Tam Ky in jungle-covered foothills where Co. B called an air strike against an unknown-size enemy force. Three NVA and four VC were killed.

Earlier, Co. B had seen six VC moving through the jungle and directed artillery fire to kill two VC a half mile from the 1130 action. Later, Co. B engaged five more NVA and VC and killed an NVA.

After killing two NVA in mountains 24 miles northwest of Tam Ky, F Trp., 17th Cav. found three NVA, two of whom had been killed by artillery and one by gunships within the previous 24 hours in the same area.

Co. C, 1-52 Inf. killed two NVA a mile from Co. B's encounters.

Co. A, 4-31 Inf. engaged and killed three VC while sweeping an area 19½ miles west of Tam Ky.

Co. D, 4-31 Inf. killed two VC and captured two carbines 22 miles west-northwest of Tam Ky. In a delayed report, Co. D also killed a VC at 2330

Six GI's were wounded and evacuated for medical treatment when a B-40 rocket penetrated an American bunker near the bridge.

The enemy force fled soon after E Trp., 1st Cav. arrived to reinforce the Co. C guard.

SSG James Polk (Jonesville, La.) killed three VC when he leaped from his bunker behind a burst of M-16 fire and cut down the VC as they moved through the wire. SSG Polk is platoon sergeant for Co. C's first platoon.

The AK-47 was recovered after the fierce fighting ended.

A VC sapper squad tossed 15-20 satchel charges at Duc Pho at 0130, and LZ Thunder received two mortar rounds later in the morning.

Three Americal Division soldiers were killed, and 11 were wounded and evacuated for medical treatment, according to an initial report.
