

The 1971 196th Brigade unit album is very large. Therefore it is broken down by units. This section is for 2/1st Inf Bn 196th LIB.

The members of the Americal Veteran's Association very much appreciate that 1st Sgt William G. Walker shared his 1971 196th Infantry Brigade Unit Album. The scanned images of the album would not have been possible without his contribution.

A black and white photograph of three U.S. military personnel in camouflage uniforms standing outdoors. They are positioned in front of a large Soviet 122 mm rocket launcher. The man on the left has his hands on his hips. The man in the center is wearing a helmet and has his hands at his sides. The man on the right is also wearing a helmet and has his hands at his sides. In the foreground, a sign is propped up, providing technical details about the captured weapon.
