

1ST BATTALION 20TH INFANTRY

VIET-NAM
1970

1ST BATTALION 20TH INFANTRY

UNIT HISTORY

The 1st Battalion, 20th Infantry in Vietnam enjoys a proud heritage that dates back over 100 years to the time of the Civil War. The 20th Infantry was organized as directed by President Abraham Lincoln in May 1861 and confirmed by an Act of Congress in July of that year. During the Civil War the unit fought under General Sykes' Division of Regulars in some of the bloodiest battles of the conflict.

"Sykes' Regulars" continued their traditions of bravery in battles of the Spanish*American War, the Phillipine Insurrection, World War I and World War II. The men of the unit carved their names in history fighting in the Battle of the Little Big Horn, Caney and San Juan Hill, Manilla, New Guinea, Lone Tree Hill, Luzon, Blue Beach, Munez and the Purple Heart Valley, the bloodiest 6000 yards of battle zone in the world.

The battalion holds a Presidential Unit Citation, three Distinguished Unit Citations, two Meritorious Unit Citations and also boasts seven Congressional Medal of Honor Winners.

"Sykes' Regulars" was reactivated in July 1966 for deployment to the Republic of Vietnam. After extensive training in small unit tactics and jungle guerrilla warfare, the main body of the battalion moved by sea to Vietnam. They began combat operations in Quang Ngai Province, which, at the time, was the heart of Communist aggression in the I Corp area.

After a series of brilliant combat operations the "Jungle Warriors" succeeded to not only break the dominant hold of the VC/NVA insurgents, but also to drive them from the areas where they once roamed freely. Since their initial thrust, the intrepid "Jungle Warriors" have continued to live up to every tradition of the American soldier with fierce fighting and a will to conquer aggression against freedom wherever they find it.

"Sykes' Regulars" have in the past, and will continue in the future to live up to their motto: TANT QUE JE PUIS:

"TO THE LIMIT OF OUR ABILITY"
