AVHAG-B

5 November 1967

SUBJECT: Shipment of Goods from R&R Sites to RVN

TO: SEE DISTRIBUTION

1. It has been found that many U.S. military personnel are experiencing difficulty importing their R&R purchases into RVN. In order to reduce confusion and disappointment the following information is provided:

a. The surface shipment time between R&R ports and Saigon is approximately two months. Many individuals take R&R late in their tour, ship items, but then have rotated before their cargo arrives in Vietnam.

b. Most vendors will, promise, but cannot perform, shipment to any point in Vietnam. Thus, the cargo arrives and stored in Saigon while the owner waits indefinitely and hopelessly for the shipper or vendor to arrange trans-shipment.

c. All personal goods shipped into Vietnam must be customs cleared. This process, requiring up to three weeks to complete, is extremely involved for a foreigner. In addition, the owner of the goods or his legal representative must be present to institute customs clearance and pay warehouse and stevedore fees.

2. Request this information be disseminated to all personnel going on R&R or leave.

3. Further information can be obtained by writing: Commanding Officer, 125th Transportation Command (Tml A) APO 96307. Telephone Tiger 4387.

Departing for R&R or Leave

1. Personnel from RVN going on out of country R&R or leave are ideal targets for enemy agents. While on R&R or leave keep all military information or any other information that could be exploited by the enemy to yourself. Do not discuss your job, your duties, or anything of a classified or official nature with strangers, casual acquaintances, or in public places. Always apply the need to know theory - no stranger needs to know.

2. Be wary of strangers offering to buy you drinks or do you favors. Be wary of people who ask too many questions, such as - what is your job, your duties and your personal opinion of the situation in Vietnam.

3. It is your duty and responsibility to report any attempts or suspected attempts of anyone trying to gain information from you. Report any such attempts to the R&R Center or to the nearest Military Installation.

4. If you are going to Japan or Australia on R&R or leave, you must report to the Security and Intelligence Section of SP&O at least one day prior to departure for an additional briefing.
