

Seattle-Tacoma International Airport is located about half-way between the two cities and serving them both. A Northwest Orient Airlines 720B Fan-Jet (Boeing) is being loaded here, with passengers boarding the plane through the moveable ramp. In back looms snow-covered Mount Rainier in its majestic grandeur.

My Mom,

You would never guess what I am. I am calling and
the other day,
all you said.
Love always

My Aunt Susan
