WHO ARE WE: A group of organizations providing free community legal education for people in the Mobile area. There is no tuition, no grades, no degrees. Course organizers, teachers, and facilities are all volunteer. Lay Law School Classes exist on donations from people who take the classes, support the program and buy the literature. The LLSC is a self supporting project with one teacher of the National Lawyers Guild and several with above Master Degrees.

WHAT WE DO: Provide legal survival information in areas of law that affect the daily lives of incarcerated persons and their families, poor people, working class people, third world people, street people, youth, women, and people in need because of their conditions, styles, or politics. We train persons interested in penal reform skills, legal aid workers who want to learn skills, develop an understanding of the American legal system, lay a foundation for an understanding of the economic, political and social conditions for the development of a legal system that can provide real justice.

HOW YOU CAN REGISTER: By coming to the class. Everyone who comes will be welcome. 48 North Craft Highway, Prichard, Alabama, 452 0568
