THE UNQUIET DEATHS OF JULIUS AND ETHEL ROSENBERG

1973 was the twentieth anniversary of the execution of Julius and Ethel Rosenberg -- convicted of spying for the Soviet Union. The controversy surrounding the Rosenberg "atom spy" case was again the subject of considerable debate . . . And the debate continues . . .

January 28, ABC televised a drama produced and directed by Stanley Kramer based on the actual trial. February 25 NPACT will present an original documentary program on PBS -- "The Unquiet Death of Julius and Ethel Rosenberg."

Now, more than twenty years after the Rosenbergs died in the electric chair, Invitation to an Inquest: Reopening the Rosenberg 'Atom Spy' Case by Walter and Miriam Schneir stands as the most comprehensive and authoritative book on this subject. The Schneirs will be interviewed on the NPACT program February 25.

Invitation to an Inquest: Reopening the Rosenberg 'Atom Spy' Case by Walter and Miriam Schneir. Penguin 3333. $2.95
