

O MOUNTAINEERS! A COLLECTION OF POETRY By Don West

O Mountaineers!, a book of poetry by Don West was published by the Appalachian Press. It is available in both paperback and hard cover, and includes more than 250 poems. With an introduction by Aubrey Williams, Deputy Administrator of W.P.A. in Roosevelt's New Deal administration, it also includes photographs of oil paintings by the author's wife, Connie West.

Don West is a teacher, a preacher, a labor organizer, and historian. He has had several books of poetry published. His book, Clods of Southern Earth sold more copies than any other book of American poetry, excepting Whitman's Leaves of Grass. This volume is a collection written throughout his lifetime. It includes poems published in his other books, as well as his recent poems, never before published. It is 256 pages, and available for $3.95 in paper, $10.00 cloth.

The following pamphlets by Don West are also available:

PEOPLES CULTURAL HERITAGE IN APPALACHIA	15¢
ROMANTIC APPALACHIA: POVERTY PAYS IF YOU AIN'T POOR	25¢
