

The courts, the legislature, the public forum - these are the channels through which the American Civil Liberties Union plays its distinctive role of strengthening the freedoms guaranteed to us under the Bill of Rights.

At this Convention, the ACLU of Virginia provides a forum for the discussion of the civil liberties of university students in the light of today's problems: student involvement in the community, student involvement in the university, new pressures on the university, new mores, new styles of dissent. You are invited to take part in these discussions. You are also invited to join us in the work of the American Civil Liberties Union--maintaining that eternal vigilance which is the price of liberty.
