

(AMERICAN CIVIL LIBERTIES UNION OF VIRGINIA)
CENTRAL VIRGINIA CHAPTER

October 16, 1973

Dear Chapter Member:

The annual membership meeting of the Central Virginia Chapter of the American Civil Liberties Union will be held at 8:00 PM on Thursday, November 15, at Westminster Presbyterian Church on Rugby Road in Charlottesville (right next to the railroad tracks).

The agenda of the meeting includes a brief report of the chapter's activities in the past year and the announcement of the results of the Board of Directors election. The main event of the evening will be a panel discussion on "Obscenity and Community Standards--Who Decides?" Panelists scheduled as of this writing include John Bowen, Chief of Police for the City of Charlottesville; Charles Haugh, Commonwealth's Attorney for the County of Albemarle; David Thelen, Staff Counsel for the State ACLU; and Charles Whitebread, Associate Professor of Law at the University of Virginia.

All members are urged to attend what should prove to be a stimulating and enlightening session. Refreshments will be served.

Members are also urged to mark and return the enclosed ballots which list sixteen candidates for eight openings on the chapter board of directors. Each member may vote for as many as eight persons. Husband-wife memberships are allotted two ballots. Ballots must be received at Windermere, Route 1, Charlottesville, Virginia 22901 on or before November 15, 1973. Biographical information and an addressed envelope are enclosed for your convenience.

Please be sure to vote, and make a point of coming to our annual membership meeting. Thanks.

Sincerely,

Kevin L. Mannix
Chairman, Central Virginia Chapter
