2546 N. Halsted St., Chicago, Ill. 60614 877-2394

Resources:
Latin America

CAGLA is an independent organization attempting to raise consciousness with regard to U.S. imperialism as well as the struggles for liberation in Latin America. We see ourselves as a regional center to collect material from and about Latin America and make it available for research and action to people in the Midwest. We presently receive about 40 periodicals from and about Latin America. Other material and human resources available from CAGLA are slide shows on Chile and Brazil and a number of people available to speak on a variety of topics.

Some areas in which CAGLA members are involved are Chile support, multinationals in Latin America, a Brazil support group, and a research project on tourism in Puerto Rico. CAGLA presents educational programs and has shown a number of excellent films from Latin America, such as Blood of the Condor (Bolivia), Memories of Underdevelopment (Cuba) and Campamento (Chile)--available from Tricontinental Film Center--and plans to do more in the future.

The CAGLA Newsletter has been discontinued and is being replaced by "occasional papers". A donation of $1.00 or more will put your name on our mailing list. Too, CAGLA can always use volunteers and contributions.
