POST OFFICE BOX 4771
KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI 64109

18 August '75

Dear Mr. Volonte,

We received your note of 8 August and the enclosed donation of $2.00. Thank you very much for your kind consideration and contribution.

Your name will be placed (if not already) on our mailing list to receive our monthly newsletter and periodic publications.

I'm enclosing a couple flyers/order forms for additional resource material on Chile, should you be interested. The pamphlet and record are both excellent and can be obtained either thru the National Office of the "Venceremos Brigade" in New York (a group which works w/ Chile solidarity organizations) or thru our local Chile office here in Kansas City.

Thank you again for your donation and please let us know if we can be of further assistance.
For a Free Chile,
Ed Haase

"LEVANTATE Y MIRA A LA MONTAÑA"

The lyric and moving music of the incomparable Chile singer, Victor Jara. Combining elements of folk music contemporary rhythms and political content, the songs possess profound beauty and meaning.

Composed and performed by Jara himself, they include "The Right to Live in Peace" about Vietnam, the joyful "To Cuba," the sardonic "Houses in the Ghetto," and "We Go By the Narrow Path," about the Chilean people's determination to forge their destiny.

Victor Jara was brutally murdered by the junta shortly after the coup in September 1973. The songs on this album stand as a testimony to his vision and spirit, that live on in his countrymen and women today.

...BEFORE THE EYES AND CONSCIENCE OF THE WORLD

A 13-page pamphlet containing the official translation of Beatriz Allende's address to the North American people, given before audiences at CUBA-CHILE '74 in Chicago and New York City, July 27 and 28, 1974.

Sra. Allende, daughter of Chile's martyred President Salvador Allende, now serves as Executive Secretary of the Chilean Committee of Solidarity with the Anti-Fascist Resistance in Havana, Cuba. She won an unrestricted visa to visit the United States in July as a result of a broad campaign in support of her right to speak directly to the people of this country.

Following Sra. Allende's speech is an article by the Committee of Solidarity with the Anti-Fascist Resistance in Havana, documenting the first year of fascism in Chile.
