Dear Friend,

President Carter has affirmed U.S. willingness to fight if the Soviet Union invades Pakistan or Iran. Naval, Air, and Ground Forces are being prepared in case war breaks out. Congress is being asked for many extra billions of dollars to provide the military forces with essential manpower and weapons, and the request will probably be granted promptly.

It is good to prepare for a war that may come, but it is foolish to ignore a war that is actually being fought. The communists are waging a war of propaganda and subversion in which they have already won great victories. The enormous bookmobiles which are used in many countries, and of which one example is shown in the accompanying newsletter, are weapons in this war. The Soviet Union is spending billions for such weapons.

The resources of the few who are fighting the communists in this war of propaganda and subversion are pitifully meager, but the enemy must be fought. Consider this letter from a man in Italy who has cooperated in the translation into Italian of the book, "You Can Trust the Communists (to be Communists)," and its publication and distribution in Italy:

"We are glad to inform you that we have had the opportunity to spread the book among Italian journalists, as well as students, teachers, pastors and priests. We have received many reactions, both positive and negative. We are also certain that we should be grateful for this book by Dr. Schwarz because the Communist Party lost many votes in the last election. We now have less than 2,000 copies left. We hope we will have enough funds to print another 50,000 copies."

It will cost $25,000 to print 50,000 copies. It is sad to have to hesitate before authorizing our Italian co-workers to invest this sum considering the billions the communists are spending on books, magazines and pamphlets.

We will pledge the $25,000 to our Italian brothers immediately so that the printing and distribution of this anticommunist literature may proceed. I confidently ask you to affirm your approval of this commitment by sending a substantial contribution as soon as possible.

We also have 43 Christian and Anticommunist workers in Andhra State, India, who need support. An Indian and his family can be supported for $25 per month. These workers do not have bookmobiles as the communists do, but they distribute much literature which they carry on bicycles.

These are two of many opportunities for effective action.

Soviet aggression follows conquest by subversion. The best way to prevent military war is to defeat the communists in their campaign of deception and subversion. Let us combat communist lies with the truth.

With Christian love,

Fred Schwarz
