

BOOKS by the BERRIGANS

Most of the Berrigan books are now in paperback.

No. Am.

- — THE BURDEN OF THE BERRIGANS. Special Holy Cross Quarterly edition devoted entirely to the Berrigan brothers. Essays by Robert McAfee Brown, Noam Chomsky and others. More than 30 photographs. $1.95
- — CONSEQUENCES: TRUTH AND... by Daniel Berrigan, S.J. A diary exploring the course of the author's mind and heart during the mid-1960s--in Selma and Johannesburg; into exile in Cuernavaca, Rio and throughout Latin America. $1.45
- — DIVINE DISOBEDIENCE by Francine du Plessix Gray. Essays about the Berrigans and others who, while dedicated to their faith, are rebelling against the Church's traditional structure. $1.95
- — FR. BERRIGAN'S LETTER TO THE WEATHERMEN. A condensed transcription of a taped letter from Daniel Berrigan to the Weathermen recorded three days before he was arrested by the FBI. A Village Voice reprint. 5¢
- — LOVE, LOVE AT THE END by Dan Berrigan. Parables, prayers and meditations which penetrate to the heart of experience today. $1.45
- — NO BARS TO MANHOOD by Daniel Berrigan, S.J. Explores the author's commitment to radicalism and traces the influences which brought him to his present position. 95¢
- — NO ONE WALKS WATERS by Dan Berrigan. Poems which reveal the author's involvement in and interpretation of the world around him. $4.50
- — PRISON JOURNALS OF A PRIEST REVOLUTIONARY by Philip Berrigan. Offers a powerful defense of the author's radical activism and a scathing attack on those who think they can serve both love and war. $1.25
- — A PUNISHMENT FOR PEACE by Philip Berrigan. A hard-hitting, convincing statement. $1.25
- — THEY CALL US DEAD MEN by Dan Berrigan. Essays on poverty, race, disarmament, technology, etc. "Informed and seasoned with a disturbing compassion." $1.45

Please send me the items I have checked.

$ _____ TOTAL COST ___ Please bill me
$ _____ I enclose

◆ Please note: cash must accompany all orders of $10.00 or less unless credit has been established.

We pay postage on cash orders.

NAME _____

ADDRESS _____

FELLOWSHIP PUBLICATIONS, Box 271, Nyack, N. Y. 10960