

FOR YOUNG AMERICANS
CONCERNED ABOUT THE VIETNAM WAR

Hundreds of thousands of Americans have signed statements that they believe the Vietnam war is unjust and immoral. Among them are more than 25,000 clergymen, thousands of educators, and many of America's best-known personalities.

It is especially important that high school and draft-age citizens be heard because they are the ones most directly affected. If you share the opinion in the box below, please sign and return this card — it requires no postage.

Your name will not be made public. Announcements of the number of replies will be made to the public and to the President, who has asked to know what people of draft age think about these questions.
