

30th Anniversary of a Classic AMERICAN NEGRO SLAVE REVOLTS

"The author has challenged the proslavery interpretation of U.B. Phillips and others who have spread the myth of the Negro living happily under slavery. Aptheker, a Marxist historian, has found records of over 200 revolts and conspiracies among slaves and has graphically told this story. Recommended for large public libraries and colleges." —Library Journal

by Herbert Aptheker

—Paperback $3.25

"American Negro Slave Revolts," were it just a cataloguing of individual and collective acts of resistance, would still be the most revelatory and exciting book of the kind extant. It is, however, much more than that. Mr. Aptheker digs deep into the structure and nature of a society which sold human beings as beasts of burden." —Muhammad Speaks

"It is an important work in the field of corrective historical writing because it devastates the sentimental apologia of generations of writers." —New York Herald Tribune

"A thrilling saga of black men's fight for freedom is told with painstaking and thorough care." —Chicago Defender

"In finding records of 250 revolts and conspiracies and placing them in their historic and social context, Dr. Aptheker has thrown new light upon the character and operation of the slave system itself." —Los Angeles Reporter

"Aptheker's study of Negro Slave revolts shatters forever the legend of Negro docility." —New York Post

STRATEGY FOR A BLACK AGENDA

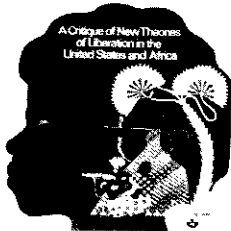

A Critique of New Theories of Liberation in the United States and Africa

by Henry Winston

The National Chairman of the U.S. Communist Party sharply challenges the current theories of Neo-Pan-Africanism, Maoism, and "black capitalism" as expressed by Imamu Baraka, Stokely Carmichael, James Foreman and others. He counters with a Marxist strategy—incorporating the teachings of W.E.B. Du Bois and Kwame Nkrumah—which calls for the defeat of racism and imperialism through national and working class unity. "It is... global in reach, topical and specific in treating U.S. reality. Its content is informative, its tone optimistic, and it is eminently convincing in its counsel for united, disciplined mass struggles" —Political Affairs

—Cloth $7.50 —Paperback $2.50

by HENRY WINSTON

REVOLUTIONARY PATH

by Kwame Nkrumah

The last work, published posthumously, of the great African statesman and revolutionist. Contains many previously unpublished documents embodying Nkrumah's strategy for the fight against neo-colonialism, and for the construction of a unified and socialist Africa. "It is timely that the publication of this historical text should also coincide with the tenth anniversary of the foundation of the Organization of African Unity of which Nkrumah had been a prominent inspirer. In fact Nkrumah's last message is first and foremost a critical appraisal of recent developments in the history of African unity." —Julia Herve, The Black Scholar

—Cloth $12.50 —Paperback $4.25

BLACK WORKER IN THE DEEP SOUTH

by Hosea Hudson

The life story of the son of a sharecropping family who escaped to the city to become a metal worker and subsequently triumphed as one of the South's most outstanding union presidents and civil rights leaders. "Again, we view another individual's refusal to buckle to the knee of oppression. We view a courageous and gallant Black Southern worker with a devout commitment to justice." —The Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, President, SCLC.

—Cloth $6.95 —Paperback $1.95

RACISM AND HUMAN SURVIVAL

The Lessons of Nazi Germany for Today's World

by Claude Lightfoot

Drawing on first-hand observation and study, the author compares the different ways in which the racist legacy of Hitlerism is treated in the Federal German Republic and in the German Democratic Republic, and discusses the lessons to be drawn in fighting the menace of racism and fascism at home. "Lightfoot's book should be made required reading... so that blacks will discover that there are places in this world where racism is being annihilated... we need only to take a working blue print from this book." —Baltimore Afro-American

—Paperback $1.50

BOOKS BY W.E.B. DU BOIS

JOHN BROWN

A new edition prepared in 1962 by Dr. DuBois. "Du Bois' John Brown is the real one, there is no doubt about that." —Truman Nelson. "The facts from the viewpoint of the little known but important inner development of the Negro American." —Ernest Kaiser, Freedomways.

—Cloth $7.50 —Paperback $3.25

THE WORLD AND AFRICA

An Inquiry into the Part which Africa has Played in World History

A new edition of the classic work on the personalities and future of the nations of Africa. "Here is the mature thought of a deeply delving and widely ranging scholar" —Freedomways. "Additional material has made this revised edition an even better book. Recommended for all collections." —African Bibliographical Center. "It should be required reading." —Choice Books for College Libraries.

—Cloth $8.95 —Paperback $2.95

AN ABC OF COLOR

Chosen by Dr. Du Bois himself just before his death, these selections include over half a century of the writings of the great social scientist, historian and pioneer of Black liberation. With an introduction by J.O. Killens.

—Paperback $1.35

THE AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF W.E.B. DU BOIS

A Soliloquy on Viewing My Life

from the Last Decade of Its First Century

The last work of one of the greatest minds of the 20th century. "An account of his life in the Negro movement, every page of which is valuable... Parts of it form a classic of American narrative." —Harpers. "What is especially unique is the insight it offers into his personality. These are the reminiscences of a passionate man." —Saturday Review

—Cloth (illustrated) $10.00

—Paperback $3.45

BOOKS BY KWAME NKRUMAH

REVOLUTIONARY PATH — please see reverse side

CLASS STRUGGLE IN AFRICA

The author analyzes the specific history and traits of the peasantry, workers and various strata of the middle class, including intellectuals and professionals. He rejects theories which deny the reality of the modern class struggle in Africa.

—Cloth $3.50 —Paper $1.25

NEO-COLONIALISM: Last Stage of Imperialism

An eloquent presentation of the author's views, written in the heat of the great African independence upsurge, on the full liberation and unification of Africa along socialist lines.

—Cloth $6.95 —Paper $2.65

AFRICA MUST UNITE

A comprehensive survey of Africa. "Will likely prove the classic and most authoritative book on the subject." —R. Palme Dutt, Labour Monthly. "The argument is powerful . . . it behooves those concerned with Africa to harken to it now." —New York Times Book Review. Maps, charts and index.

—Cloth $7.50 —Paper $3.25

GHANA: The Autobiography of Kwame Nkrumah

The inspiring story of a life which began in 1909 on the Gold Coast in a family of craftsmen and from 1945 on became inseparably linked with the founding of Ghana and the freedom struggle in Africa as a whole.

—Cloth $7.50 —Paper $3.25

HANDBOOK OF REVOLUTIONARY WARFARE

Intended as a handbook for African guerrillas, this book discusses the latest stage of the African revolution, including detailed proposals for the coordination of political and military action on the Continent.

—Paper $1.50

DARK DAYS IN GHANA

The Father of Ghana evaluates the military coup that deposed him and the country's present ruling group.

—Paper $1.85

CHALLENGE OF THE CONGO

New light on the crisis which led to the murder of Lumumba and the suppression of the liberation movement. "Dozens of significant and often fascinating documents which shed light on the Congo affair." —Journal of Asian and African Studies. "The work of a brilliant mind." —Saturday Review

—Cloth $7.50 —Paper $2.65

AXIOMS OF KWAME NKRUMAH

Representative quotations from speeches and writings are gathered in this Freedom Fighter's Edition of the revolutionary's thinking on domestic and world issues of the African revolution.

—Flexible Plastic Covers $1.00

OTHER BOOKS ON BLACK HISTORY AND LIBERATION

TO BE FREE: Studies in American Negro History
by Herbert Aptheker. Covers slave guerrilla warfare, Black soldiers and sailors in the Civil War, Reconstruction in Mississippi.

—Cloth $5.95 —Paper $2.25

NEW BLACK POETRY

Clarence Major, Ed. Selections from 76 contemporary Afro-American poets, reflecting the upsurge of "black consciousness" in the U.S.

—Cloth $5.95 —Paper $1.95

WE CHARGE GENOCIDE: The Crime of Government Against the Negro People

William L. Patterson, Ed. The historic petition placed before the United Nations in 1951, documenting the deadly workings of racism in the U.S.

—Cloth $5.95 —Paper $1.95

AND WHY NOT EVERY MAN?

by Herbert Aptheker. A collection of documents on the Abolitionist struggle against slavery in the United States.

—Paperback $1.50

THE NEGRO PEOPLE IN AMERICAN HISTORY

by William Z. Foster. Recounts the history of Afro-Americans as a people and relates their experience to U.S. history as a whole.

—Cloth $8.50 —Paper $3.45

RECONSTRUCTION: The Battle for Democracy

by James S. Allen. A pioneer Marxist analysis of the period immediately following the Civil War. "The book is a scholarly, praiseworthy and enlightening endeavor."

—Liberator —Paper $2.25

THE CIVIL WAR IN THE UNITED STATES

by Karl Marx and Frederick Engels. All their writings on the subject gathered into one volume.

—Paper $2.65

A STAR TO STEER BY

by Hugh Mulzac. Life history of the first Black captain in the U.S. Merchant Marine.

—Paper $1.50

COMMUNIST COUNCILMAN FROM HARLEM:

Autobiographical Notes Written in a Federal Penitentiary

by Benjamin J. Davis. Life story of the Afro-American attorney who was the first Black Communist City Councilman in New York City.

—Cloth $6.95 —Paper $2.85

COME BACK AFRICA!

Herbert L. Shore and Megchelina Shore-Bos, eds. A panorama of South African life as seen through 14 stories by 14 South African authors. "Poignancy, power, compassion. . ." —Library Journal

—Paper $1.50

APARTHEID: A Collection of Writings on South African Racism

Alex La Guma, Ed. The case against Apartheid presented by South Africans who have themselves experienced that system's severe brutalities.

—Paper $1.65

NATIONAL LIBERATION, SOCIALISM AND IMPERIALISM

by V. I. Lenin. Selected writings on the right of self-determination and the struggle against national oppression.

—Cloth $4.50 —Paper $1.85

ESSAYS IN THE HISTORY OF THE AMERICAN NEGRO

by Herbert Aptheker. "Every history teacher, at the least, should own a copy, and better still, should see to it that each of his students possesses a copy." —Negro History Bulletin

—Paper $2.25

DICTIONARY OF AFRO-AMERICAN SLANG

by Clarence Major. A unique new lexicon compiled from the everyday language of the Black community.

—Cloth $5.95 —Paper $1.95

THE MAN WHO CRIED GENOCIDE:

An Autobiography

by William L. Patterson. The story of a lifetime of struggle for Black liberation, fusing insights gained from 50 years of struggle with experiences in the present movement.

—Cloth $6.95 —Paper $2.95

FREDERICK DOUGLASS: Selections from his Writings

Philip S. Foner, Ed. —Paper $1.00

HARRIET TUBMAN: Negro Soldier and Abolitionist

by Earl Conrad. —Paper 75¢

ORDER FORM

Enclosed is $_____ for the books I have checked above.
Charge (trade only).

Residents of New York City please include 7% tax.
New York State remit local tax.
Add 25¢ postage and handling charge for each book ordered.

Name (please print) _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Please send me your catalog.

159

BLACK HISTORY AND LIBERATION

Books from INTERNATIONAL PUBLISHERS
381 Park Avenue South, New York, NY 10016