

FALL TITLES from INTERNATIONAL

THE SECOND INDOCHINA WAR: Cambodia and Laos

Wilfred G. Burchett. This provocative first-hand report by the noted journalist provides the story of the CIA coup against Sihanouk, the instant resurgence of the Cambodian guerrillas and the hidden war which has devastated Laos since 1964.
Just Published paper, $1.95; cloth, $5.95

DYNAMICS OF SOCIAL CHANGE: A Reader in Marxist Social Science

Howard Selsam, David Goldway and Harry Martel, Eds. A cohesive five-part collection of the germinal writings of Marx, Engels and Lenin, with cogent introductions, in the areas of sociology, history, politics and economics.
September paper, $3.95; cloth, $10.00

MODERN KOREA

Kim Byong Sik. A thorough study of the diverse developments in North and South, the socialist state of the Democratic People's Republic, the relations of South Korea with the U.S. and Japan, and the prospects for unification.
October paper, $2.85; cloth, $8.95

DICTIONARY OF AFRO-AMERICAN SLANG

Clarence Major. This unique new lexicon of the idiomatic expressions of black Americans has social and economic thrust, expressing the ever-growing indictment of racism in the United States.
October paper, $1.95; cloth, $5.95

A CONTRIBUTION TO THE CRITIQUE OF POLITICAL ECONOMY

Karl Marx. A completely new translation of a work out of print for over 50 years in which Marx first presented his economic theories, the precursor of Capital.
November paper, $3.25; cloth, $7.50

PASSPORT: An Autobiography

Wilfred G. Burchett. The fascinating story of the carpenter's son from Poowong, Australia, who has become one of the world's leading international journalists.
November paper, $3.25; cloth, $7.50

CLASS STRUGGLE IN AFRICA

Kwame Nkrumah. An analysis of class structures in Africa and of the class dynamics of total liberation, unification and a radical transformation of African society.
October paper, $1.45; cloth, $4.95

INTERNATIONAL PUBLISHERS, 381 Park Ave. So., New York 10016

Order From ALL POINTS OF VIEW
BOX 321, SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS 78206

WE CHARGE GENOCIDE: The Crime of Government Against the Negro People

This historic petition to the United Nations documents the deadly workings of structured racist policies in the United States. A new edition, with introduction by William L. Patterson, founder of the Civil Rights Congress, and a Preface by Ossie Davis.
October paper, $1.95; cloth, $5.95

AFRICA MUST UNITE!

Kwame Nkrumah. Eloquently sets forth his basic approach to the liberation of Africa and the problems involved in gaining full independence and unity of all Africa along socialist lines. With a new introduction by the author for this reprint.
October paper, $2.25; cloth, $6.95

New World Paperbacks

THE AWAKENING OF ASIA

V. I. Lenin. Selections from his writings on the national liberation movements in China, India and the Middle East, 1908-1923.
September paper, $1.00

JAMES FENIMORE COOPER:

Short Stories Extracted From his Novels

Sidney Finkelstein. Frees eleven fine tales from the excess plot and verbiage of their original and unread novel form while retaining Cooper's vivid narrative power and the feel of life in the colonies.
September paper, $1.50

KING LEOPOLD'S SOLILOQUY

Mark Twain. In this long buried classic, Twain brings his brilliant literary weapons to bear on the gruesome reign of the Belgians in the Congo. Illustrated. Introduction by Stefan Heym.
September paper, $1.25

AND WHY NOT EVERY MAN?

Documentary Story of the Fight Against Slavery

Herbert Aptheker, Ed. Representative expressions of the Abolitionist crusade from both black and white individuals and organizations, 1661-1866.
October paper, $1.50

IRELAND HER OWN:

An Outline History of the Irish Struggle for National Freedom and Independence

T. A. Jackson. Spans the English conquest of ancient Ireland to the present; enlarged and brought up to date by Desmond Greaves.
November paper, $1.95

THE EMANCIPATION OF WOMEN

V. I. Lenin. Selections emphasizing the necessary role of women in social movements and historical background. Introduction by N. K. Krupskaya, Lenin's wife, and Clara Zetkin's famous interview as an appendix.
Just Published paper, $1.45