

Late March 1977.

The 'World Crisis' & Third World Resistance

SPEAKING: NIGEL HARRIS

Nigel Harris is one of Britain's foremost authorities on the struggles for national self-determination and workers' power in the third world.

He has traveled extensively in most of the Asian countries, including China, and has lived in India and Japan.

Harris is a member of the Socialist Workers Party of Britain (formerly the International Socialists), and is a past editor of the International Socialism Journal. He has written several books including: India-China - Underdevelopment and Revolution (1974); Beliefs In Society (1972); The Struggle for Bangla Desh (pamphlet, 1971) He is currently writing a book on China.

Sunday April 17

7:00 p.m.

Jewish Painters Hall
2176 Lee Road
Cleve. Heights

For more information call 486-6891 (after 4:00 p.m.)

Sponsored by the International Socialist Organization (ISO)

