

AFRICA LIBERATION

Salutes the courageous peoples of southern Africa and Guiné.

This political and educational Africa Calendar highlights significant dates from contemporary anti-imperialist revolutions as it honors the liberation struggles.

Thirteen original drawings plus poetry and quotations from middle cadre and movement leaders capture the bold spirit of the heroic peasants and workers, men, women and youth, who are advancing the revolutionary struggles in Africa.

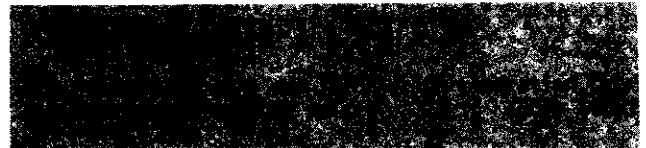

OVER 2,000 CALENDARS REQUESTED BY THE LIBERATION MOVEMENTS HAVE BEEN SENT! FRELIMO IS USING 500 INSIDE THE LIBERATED ZONES OF MOZAMBIQUE, "...for distribution to our various camps, bases, education centers, etc." -Jorge Rebelo, Frelimo Secretary for Information.

BREAKING CONTRACT

Life Histories from the Revolution - Namibia/SWAP0 #1

Autobiography of Vinnia Ndadi. Sixteen years as a contract laborer in Namibia, political organizer and now a member of SWAPO's National Executive, Vinnia Ndadi reveals the human dimension of exploitation in Namibia and documents SWAPO's early days of organizing migrant workers for liberation struggle. A vivid description of Namibia's contract labor system as organized by SWANLA. Taped, edited and introduced by Dennis Mercer. Drawings, map. 1974. 100 pp. (approx.). Available Spring. $1.75

Lucid discussion of popular political consciousness, increased Portuguese repression, and the role of imperialism. Photos, poems and drawings. Official bulletin of FRELIMO, Frente de Libertação de Moçambique. Issued and reprinted quarterly by LSM. Annual subscription: $3.00

ASPECTS OF THE MOZAMBIKAN STRUGGLE

A FRELIMO document dealing with the main aspects of the liberation struggle in Mozambique - the political situation, national reconstruction, military advances, difficulties and needs of the struggle. Reprinted by LSM. Photos, map, key dates and statistics. 1972. 15 pp. $.50

THE MOZAMBIKAN WOMAN IN THE REVOLUTION

This selection of writings on Mozambican women deals with a number of aspects in the struggle for the emancipation of women. Frelimo militants write of their "double oppression" and how they cope with and overcome it; their participation at all levels - in production, teaching, transport, combat; the Women's Detachment and the Organization of Mozambican Women. They also discuss the necessity of adopting a correct revolutionary line toward women's liberation and the women's movements in the capitalist countries and other African nations. Compiled and introduced by LSM. Poetry, Photo Illustrated, Map. 1974. 28 pp. $.85

INTERVIEW WITH MARCELINO DOS SANTOS

Interviews in Depth - Mozambique/FRELIMO #1

Frelimo Vice President and revolutionary poet, Marcelino dos Santos discusses the meaning and process of the Mozambican revolution. He describes Frelimo's early development, internal contradictions and the emergence of the revolutionary line which has guided the new society taking shape in the liberated regions. Dos Santos also deals with the role of women and the importance of international solidarity, in particular the role of the OAU and the 1970 Rome Conference on the Portuguese Colonies. Interview in French by Boubaker Adjali.

Translated and edited by LSM. 1970. 20 pp. $.75
