Brother from the west —

(How can we explain that you are our brother?)

the world does not end at the threshold of your house nor at the stream which marks the border of your country nor in the sea

in whose vastness you sometimes think that you have discovered the meaning of the infinite.

Beyond your threshold, beyond the sea
the great struggle continues.

Men with warm eyes and hands hard as the earth at night embrace their children and depart before the dawn.

Many will not return.

What does it matter?

We are men tired of shackles. For us freedom is worth more than life.

From you, brother, we expect and to you we offer
not the hand of charity

which misleads and humiliates but the hand of comradeship committed, conscious.

How can you refuse, brother from the west?
