

LIBERTARIAN PARTY

BOX 31638 AURORA, COLORADO 80011

Dear Commentary reader:

We sure were glad to hear from you.

That Commentary ad cost us $600, or just about a fifth of the Party Treasury.

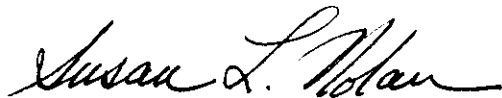

But it was worthwhile if enough people like yourself get to read our platform. It's brief, yet so all-encompassing it doesn't have to be changed every election year to fit each new crisis.

People have been calling it their most refreshing reading experience in years. Which isn't bad for a statement of political principles.

If you find yourself agreeing with more than half of it, we figure that's a good sign.

And just in case you find yourself agreeing with more than three-fourths of it, we've enclosed a membership application.

Which is as close as we'll come to asking you for money.
