Dear Virginia Libertarian,

Arrangements have been made to hold our first state meeting in Charlottesville at noon on Sunday, Nov. 18, on the grounds of the University of Virginia. The gathering will be in Newcomb Hall (the student union bldg.) in the ~~campus~~ South Meeting Room on the 3rd floor.

Roger Lea MacBride, who cast the electoral vote for Hospers last year, will be speaking. The agenda also includes adoption of the National LP Statement of Principles, plans for affiliation with the national party, selection of temporary state officers to handle the real state organization work over the next six months, adoption of a temporary state constitution, and caucuses of local or district groups.

I strongly urge everyone who can possibly do so to attend. This will be the meeting at which formal organization will get underway, so come on out! And bring your friends who might be interested. Anyone who wants to bring lit, buttons, etc., for sale is encouraged to do so.

If anyone has questions about the location, agenda, our progress to date, etc., feel free to call me at: HOME 703-528-5015 WORK 202-296-0724 or 296-0720.

Yours for peace and freedom,

Eric
