Dear Friend of Liberty:

The Libertarian Party now has its nominees for the 1976 national election, and I'm sure it will be a great year of work for all of us, along with Roger MacBride and David Bergland.

However, the fight for freedom cannot wait until then. The opportunity to make a good showing for the cause of liberty exists this year in New Jersey. Four members of the New Jersey Libertarian Party, Dan Piro of Fort Lee, Ken Kaplan of Orange, Ron Wishart of Manalapan, and Jack Conard of Toms River are running for the New Jersey Assembly. This state is a very densely populated, industrialized one which still does not have an income tax, largely due to the efforts of Libertarians. So we know that there is fertile ground for our ideas here, and the campaigns are making the most of the local issues: taxes and education. Dan, Ken, Ron and Jack are doing the "leg-work," even taking leaves from their regular jobs, and have already received good press coverage in their districts. Now, they desperately need money in order to print brochures, run newspaper advertisements and pay all of the bills for things necessary to effective campaigns. They have gotten together in "Libertarians '75" in order to make it easy for you to contribute to the work they are doing. You may contribute to all four, or allocate your donation any way you choose.

Please help us make more people aware of Libertarianism and pave the way for our entire slate in '76 (we will be on the ballot) by making ourselves known in '75.

For Liberty,

Jane T. Rehmke
