Dear Friend:

Thank you for your support of the LIBERTY AMENDMENT. Your receipt is enclosed with grateful appreciation of your help, which is essential to the work we are doing in 1974.

This should be an exciting year in our fight to restore constitutional liberty, following on the heels of the dramatic events that almost overwhelmed us in 1973. While it is true that politicians and bureaucrats have increased the tempo and the devices by which we are being slowly subjugated, the American people, on the other hand, have at last become aroused and are demanding real solutions to their problems. The problems that confront each one of us--doctors, merchants, home-makers, students, workers in every walk of life--all stem from violations of our Constitution.

The time for the reversal of political take-over is near, and the only instrument available that is capable of restoring the Constitution and the liberty it was designed to protect is the LIBERTY AMENDMENT, which has the ability not merely to stop violations of the Constitution, but to prevent their recurrence.

Thanks to supporters such as you, the LIBERTY AMENDMENT is making great headway these days in legislatures all across the country. The book, WHERE THE MONEY WENT, is going into thousands of school libraries. The meetings on cassette tapes, LET'S HAVE A MEETING, are bringing enlightenment to a great many people by explaining the LIBERTY AMENDMENT. After more than a year of hard work, the set of ten lessons on the CONSTITUTION will shortly be on the market for use in high schools, colleges, and with adult groups, and they are being acclaimed as the first completely objective and effective work on the Constitution that has appeared in many years.

You are right out in front of all this organizational effort, and we appreciate your support. But we can not rest for a moment in our efforts. Even while we are thanking you most sincerely for all you have done, we urge that you enlist others in this effort and that you redouble your efforts to bring about the success we are all working to achieve.

Sincerely,

WILLIS E. STONE
NATIONAL CHAIRMAN
