Christmas, 1973

Dear Friend:

We wish you and yours the finest Christmas ever. Even with the lights turned out and the house too cool for comfort, and all the other politically contrived restrictions, may your Christmas be bright and warm and happy with your family and friends about you, and the knowledge that God's greatest gift of freedom is within our reach. Surely no one can contest the fact that we owe allegiance to no other sovereign but God as we celebrate the birth date of "His Only Begotten Son."

And the God who gave us life, most assuredly gave us the liberty to live it. That, it seems to me, is the greatest issue of our time, just as it was in the time of Jesus of Nazareth. It may appear to us now just as elusive as it was then, but the truth is that we are within reach of our birthright, although this depends entirely upon us and our willingness to sacrifice for the attainment of this celestial thing called freedom.

That is what our efforts for the LIBERTY AMENDMENT have been about, and we are so deeply grateful for this wonderful fellowship we have because of your continued support of this great effort to find the secret of how to serve the holy cause of human liberty, and bind down potential Caesars by "the chains of the Constitution."

And, as we celebrate the birth of the Christ Child, let us remember there is a grim and threatening year directly ahead, when the quest for freedom will be enormously challenged. We should build our armor today for the battles to come; and to build it strong enough to overcome the powers of evil challenging the rights of man, I pray that you may do your utmost at this time of crisis. Your help now can make a tremendous difference in 1974 and the years beyond.

Again, with thanks for your magnificent support, we wish you and yours

A Very Merry Christmas!

Willis E. Stone, for the
