Dear Miss Staples:

If you were asked by the Senate Judiciary Committee to appear at their hearings in Washington to express your own views on the breakdown of law and order in America, would you accept?

From what I know about you as a subscriber to LIBERTY LETTER you would, because you are obviously concerned about the future of your country. But, let's admit it--even if you had this opportunity--the time, effort and money you would spend on the preparation and personal presentation of your viewpoint would be too great.

Even then, no matter how fine your presentation, the fact would remain that your views would be those of just one person, as far as the Committee is concerned.

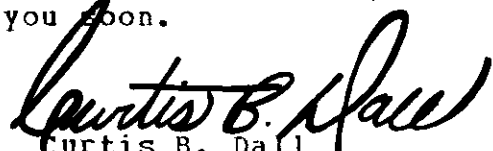

But what if an experienced spokesman approved by you were to speak before the Committee, not only for you, but for the tens of thousands of other Americans who feel the same way? What if this spokesman could tell the Committee that he speaks on behalf of Americans from all across the Nation. . . from Tom Lee in Alaska to Mary Evans in Florida, as well as for Maveret Staples in Virginia.

That's the idea behind the LIBERTY LOBBY Board of Policy. It is effective. I've seen it work time and time again, and it will become more effective as the Board of Policy grows.

I only wish I could convey to you in this short letter how important it is that you join the Board. I can only say that if I thought it would help convince you, then I would personally come to Charlottesville. It's that important!

Of course, as a member, you'll always know what we say before committees, because we'll send you printed copies of all LIBERTY LOBBY testimony. In effect, we'll bring the committees of Congress right to 909 Rockland Avenue.

I sincerely hope that you will accept this invitation. In the year ahead, we must work together to save our nation. I am enclosing material describing the benefits of membership. Will you join us, Miss Staples? I hope to hear from you soon.

Curtis B. Dail
Chairman, Board of Policy
