EVERYONE'S TALKING ABOUT ANARCHISM!

(Well, at least some people are... maybe YOU should be!)

Don't miss the opportunity for exciting dinner conversations.

EXCITING DINNER CONVERSATIONS?

Well, we think there should be more to a program for social change than that, and when we're not kidding ourselves a bit we're working to build a better world—a world without coercive authority.

Some radicals think that all you need to do is elect the right politicians (theirs, of course) and everything that is wrong today will right itself. We disagree. To us Anarchists, most of the problems of this contemporary world stem from the practice of AUTHORITARIANISM: authoritarian control by innumerable officials, police, teachers, and busybodies with a host of licenses, boards, bureaus, committees and orders to boss everyone about. So the usual panacea—electing of "the right candidates"—is only a program for a DIF FERENT SET of masters. A free people, we think, will have no masters.

Every month in THE MATCH our writers discuss both the theory of the movement—the reasoning behind the actions of Anarchists—and the shape of the movement—what Anarchists are doing to change society and what they are saying to the world.

We hope you will want to hear us out. Maybe when you've heard enough, you'll join us.
