Dear Charlie Finn,

Fred Branfman and Sister Elizabeth McAlister are available during the two weeks in December (6-10, 13-15) that you mentioned in your recent letter. Egbal Ahmad's wife is expecting a baby in early December (their first) so he is sticking close to home. He will be available in January.

The fee for Branfman should be $250.00; and the fee for McAlister, $225.00. Can you come up with any kind of a guarantee??? Let us know what the possibility is of coming up with some bread plus the travel expenses (Branfman from Washington & McAlister from New York City). Keep on truckin.

In struggle,

Bob Lamb, staff
