

Unity, education and advancement of the American Indian people are the goals set by A Nation in One Foundation. Preservation and perpetuation of the American Indian people of all tribes. We feel that this will be an asset to people throughout the Nation and the World. In view of the contributions made by the Native American Indians, this cultural center will add to the Nation's historic and cultural values and will be an educational asset to colleges, historians, anthropologists and to all students of the American Indian.

"...official recognition came during President Nixon's recent visit to San Jose, when he accepted a peace pipe from the Foundation. It was presented to him personally at the Civic Auditorium by Mrs. Seele, Cedartree, and George Bear Cloud, a member of the Crow tribe from Montana, all in tribal costume."
