

You can find ^{ENASPI} meaningful work in rural Virginia and N. C.

The National Association for the Southern Poor has brought new pride to the blacks of Virginia and North Carolina. Their efforts have enabled the people to achieve better schools, housing and most important of all, a belief in making a political system that will work for all of us.

The hours are long and the pay is $75 a week and transportation, plus the satisfaction of making democratic ideals a reality to a people just emerging from slavery.

We need staff. Write P.O. B. 1834, Petersburg, Virginia 23803.

