

NCCIJ IS PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE:

A National Placement Bureau For American Nuns

SUMMER SERVICE is available in Southern Negro Colleges, Adult Education Programs such as the Traveling Workshop, SUMMER IN SUBURBIA (designed for twenty cities next year), OEO-Funded Remedial and Enrichment Schools, Upward Bound Projects for college — directed underprivileged youths, etc.

YEAR ROUND Service is also open to sisters who wish to reach out to urgent human needs.

THIS NATIONAL PLACEMENT BUREAU is established to assist nuns who wish to remain within the embrace of their religious communities and yet to make fullest use of their personal gifts in a broadened education and health-care service in a humble effort to right the wrongs of mankind.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS FOR NCCIJ PLACEMENT BUREAU:

Sister Audrey Kopp, SNJM
Director of Research and Curriculum
NCCIJ

Sister Anthony Claret Sparks, OSF
Director of Sisters Urban Education
NCCIJ

Sister Mary Peter Traxler, S.S.N.D.
Director of Educational Services,
NCCIJ

Sister Roberta Steinbacher, OSU
Director of Summer in Suburbia
Staff Member: Project Bridge

Sister Joyce Williams, OSB
Steering Committee: BLACK NUNS CAUCUS

Consultants and Advisors to this Bureau:

Mother Callista Collins, OSF
Mother General: Sisters of St. Francis
Assisi Heights, Rochester, Minnesota

Mother Lucille, SC
Mother General: Sisters of Charity of Nazareth
Louisville, Kentucky

For application forms and additional information, write:

Department of Educational Services, NCCIJ; 1307 South Wabash, Chicago, Illinois 60605.

