

Bicentennial March for Jobs

JOBS • LOWER PRICES • AID TO THE CITIES

Join the protest to Pres. Ford & Congress.
Break the silence. Make jobs and people's needs issues in the elections.

DEMAND:

- Passage of Hawkins Jobs Bill (HR 50)
- Extension of unemployment benefits
- Public works jobs for the unemployed
- A shorter work week without reduction in pay
- Reduced taxes on working people
- Aid to the cities for education, housing, mass transit, medical and day care, senior centers, anti-poverty programs, welfare and food stamps
- Priority help to those hardest hit—Black and other minorities, women, youth and senior citizens
- Slash military spending and close tax loopholes for corporations and super-rich to provide funds for people's needs

Washington D.C. APRIL 3, 1976

(April 3 was selected in honor of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., who died April 4, 1968.)
